

CAPE COD TOUR STARTS AT $78

Click to book or request more info.

Ride with us by motorcoach across the Cape Cod Canal and enter a world of sand dunes and salty beaches. In Hyannisport, we'll visit a memorial dedicated to President John F. Kennedy and a nearby beach.

Then join a narrated sightseeing harbor cruise that offers the best possible view of the Kennedy Compound. Time is provided for some shopping and lunch on your own at one of the many nearby restaurants after the cruise.

Then travel down the 'King's Highway' through historic Sandwich. We'll make a stop for a glass blowing exhibit at the Sandwich Glass Museum and Gift Shop with additional free time to explore Sandwich. The discounted Child rates apply to children ages 3 to 11 and children under 3 are free provided they don't occupy a seat. Children must be accompanied by at least one adult. If your child will occupy a seat, please purchase a child ticket. 7.0 hours

Martha's Vineyard African American Film Festival travel.

It is being held August 6-11. We'll help you with your travel requirements.

Black Heritage Travel Series

We operate the VisitBlackNewEngland.com, BlackBostonCommon.com and the AboutBlackBoston.org web sites so that we can focus on finding you the best Black Heritage travel exploration experiences in New England and beyond. You can now book day trips from Boston to New England sites we target. We recently visited Raleigh NC, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington DC, Charleston SC, Portsmouth NH and found interesting black destinations we're programming future trip products for.

Admission ticket prices at the sites vary. Some offer free admittance. Others charge 12- $20. Transportation prices per person ranges per group size. Estimate $25-40 per person on average. We will work with group leaders to plan trips and layout all the associated costs of the trip.

Some local locations are:

National Black Doll Museum

Portsmouth Black Heritage Trail

Royal Slave Quarters
